(“Bachoco” or “the Company”) (NYSE: IBA; BMV: Bachoco), Mexico’s leading producer and processor of poultry and other food products, announced today that it reached an agreement to acquire the breeding assets in Arkansas of Morris Hatchery Inc., a U.S. company.

These assets comprise mainly equipment and bird inventory. This operation has a capacity of around 350 thousand laying hens that produces hatching eggs.

Rodolfo Ramos, Bachoco’s Chief Executive Officer, stated: “This is a strategic acquisition for our Company for several reasons; first, it will rapidly reinforce our supply of hatching eggs for our Mexico and U.S. operations, thus ensuring a proper supply of chicken for our customers; secondly, it represents a step towards our organic growth, and; lastly, this operation is located in a region far enough from our current breeding complexes, thereby increasing dispersion and reducing sanitary risks for our operations.”

This acquisition will take effect immediately
