

BACHOCO ANNOUNCES NO MATERIAL DAMAGES AND REINFORCES ITS COMMITMENT WITH COMMUNITIES AFFECTED BY EARTHQUAKES IN MEXICO.

Celaya, Guanajuato, Mexico, September 21, 2017.

Industrias Bachoco S.A.B. de C.V. ("Bachoco" or "the Company") (NYSE: IBA; BMV: Bachoco), Mexico's leading producer and processor of poultry and other food products, announced today that there are no material damages in its facilities after the earthquakes of September 7th and 19th, 2017, that occurred in the southern and central regions of Mexico and continues its normal operations.

Rodolfo Ramos, Bachoco's Chief Executive Officer, stated:

"Right now, we are focused in:

- Providing immediate assistance to our employees and their families affected by these unfortunate events.
- To help those affected in the southern communities and Mexico City by donating prepared food directly and through some of the food chains we work with, in coordination with Mexican authorities.
- To continue our operations and to keep the supply of our food products to all the regions we attend, either affected or not by this event.

We will follow closely the evolution of events and be ready to provide assistance in every way we can to help in this difficult situation our country is facing.

Even when there is no easy solution to the unfortunate losses, we are confident that the unity shown by the people in Mexico will enable our country to overcome these events. "
